To euill should be done by none:
But custome What they did begin,
Was with long vse, account'd no sinne,
The beauty of this sinfull Dame,
Made many Princes thither frame,
To seeke her as o Bed-fellow,
In marriage pleasures, play-fellow:
Which to preuent he made a Law,
To keepe her still, and men in awe:
That who so ask't her for his wife,
His Riddle told not, lost his life:
So for her many of wight did dye,
As yon grim lookes doe testifie.
What now ensues to the iudgement of your eye,
I giue my cause, who best can iustifie. Exit.

Enter Antiochus, Prince Pericles, and followers

Ant Yong Prince of Tyre, you haue at large receiued
The danger of the taske you vndertake.
Per. I haue (Antiochus) and with a soule emboldned
With the glory of her praise, thinke death no hazard,
In this interprise.
Ant. Musicke bring in our Daughter, clothed like a bride
For embracements euen of Ione himselfe;
At whose conception, till Lucina raigned,
Nature this dowry gaue; to glad her presence,
The Senate house of Planets all did sit,
To knit in her their best perfections.

Enter Antiochus Daughter.

Per See where she comes appareled like the Spring,
Graces her subiects and her thoughts the King,
Of euery Vertue giues renowne to men:
Her face the booke of prayses, where is read,
Nothing but curious pleasures, as from thence,
Sorrow were euer rackt, and teasty wrath
Could neuer be her milde companion.

You

You Gods that made me man, and sway in loue,
That haue enflam'd desire in my breast,
To taste the fruite of yon celestiall tree,
(Or dye in the aduenture) be my helpes,
As I am sonne and seruant to your will,
To compasse such a bondlesse happinesse.
Anti. Prince Pericles.
Peri. That would be sonne to great Antiochus.
Anti. Before thee stands this faire Hesperides,
With golden fruite, but dangerous to be toucht:
For death like Dragons heere affright thee hard:
Her face like Heauen, inticeth thee to view
Her countlesse glory, which desert must gaine:
And which without desert, because thine eye
Presumes to reach, all the whole heape must dye,
Yon sometimes famous Princes like thy selfe,
Drawne by report, aduenturous by desire,
Tell thee with speachlesse tongues, and semblance pale,
That without couering, saue yon field of Starres,
Heere they stand Martyrs slaine in Cupids Warres:
And with dead cheekes aduice thee to desist,
For going on death net, whom none resist.
Per. Anti. I thanke hee, who hath taught,
My frayle mortality to know it selfe;
And by those fearefull obiects to prepare
This body, like to them to them, to what I must:
For death remembred should be like a Myrrour,
Who tels vs, life's but breath, to trust it errour:
Ile make my Will then, and as sicke men doe,
Who know the World, see Heauen, but feeling woe,
Gripe not at earthly ioyes as earst they did;
So I bequeath a happy peace to you,
And all good men, as euery Prince should doe:
My riches to the earth from whence they came;
But my vnspotted fire of Loue to you,
Thus ready for the way of life or death,
I wait the sharpest blow (Antiochus)
